Troop 210
December 11-13 Campout @ Miakonda

Troop 210 has reserved Adirondacks #3 at Camp Miakonda for a campout on the weekend of December 11-13. Adirondacks are 3-sided shelters on concrete slabs with 2 bunk beds (no mattresses), arranged with the open side of the shelters facing a central fire pit. Scouts can either sleep in the Adirondack shelters or build a Camp Alaska style shelter with a buddy plus try out whatever prepared meals they bring. You will also be able to work on a number of outdoor, map & compass, or other Scout skills.

Meet directly at Camp Miakonda Friday night any time after 6 pm. Teams of Scouts should bring the appropriate Camp Alaska gear, meals, and if planning to make your own shelter, shelter materials.

When: Friday, December 11, starting at 6:00 pm and ending by Sunday, December 13. Note: Scouts may elect to stay just one night. Depending upon weather conditions, the whole Troop may elect to stay just one night. Parents will be notified if the campout is cut short.

Cost: $25.00 per Scout

What to Bring: Tent camping gear as listed in your Scout handbook. Scouts must bring (3) of their own simple meals of a Camp Alaska type that can be easily cooked on an open fire or by adding hot water. The Troop will provide a Friday night snack and simple Sunday breakfast. Bring a ground pad even if you plan to sleep in the Adirondack shelters, all eating utensils, and the clothing/outdoor gear appropriate for the expected weather.

Activities: Map & compass training; Pioneering; geocaching; axemanship; fire building; camp tour/hiking; general Camp Alaska preparation
