

AOL/Webelos Invitational

November Cabin Campout

Issue Date: October 6, 2026

Pack 210 AOL Scouts and Webelos have been invited to camp with us at the Troop 210 annual November cabin campout the weekend of Nov. 13-15.

Scouts can be trained and tested on a number of skill areas and also help AOL/Webelos fulfill rank requirements. A variety of T-2-1 advancements will be offered as time and weather permits. With advance planning along with adult Troop leaders, Scouts can work on Cooking merit badge requirements.

The Troop is staying in Sacred Heart cabin and Webelos/AOL will be in Rosewood cabin this year. As usual, do not bring candy, food, cell phones, or other electronics. Board and card games are welcome. Wear class “A” uniforms to camp but also bring class “B” T-shirts to wear during the day. Assume you will be outside most of the day, so bring gear and outdoor clothing appropriate for the expected weather. Scouts are welcome to bring their own tents instead of staying in the cabins.

The Troop will provide our annual Thanksgiving dinner for all campout participants. Except for Scouts needing to purchase their own ingredients for cooking requirements, all meals and snacks will be provided by the Troop.
